

Offer corporate fitness to your employees?
 This is how the work-related costs scheme (WKR) works.

Work-related costs scheme (WKR)
 The WKR is an employment scheme in which you can give tax-free allowances to your employees.

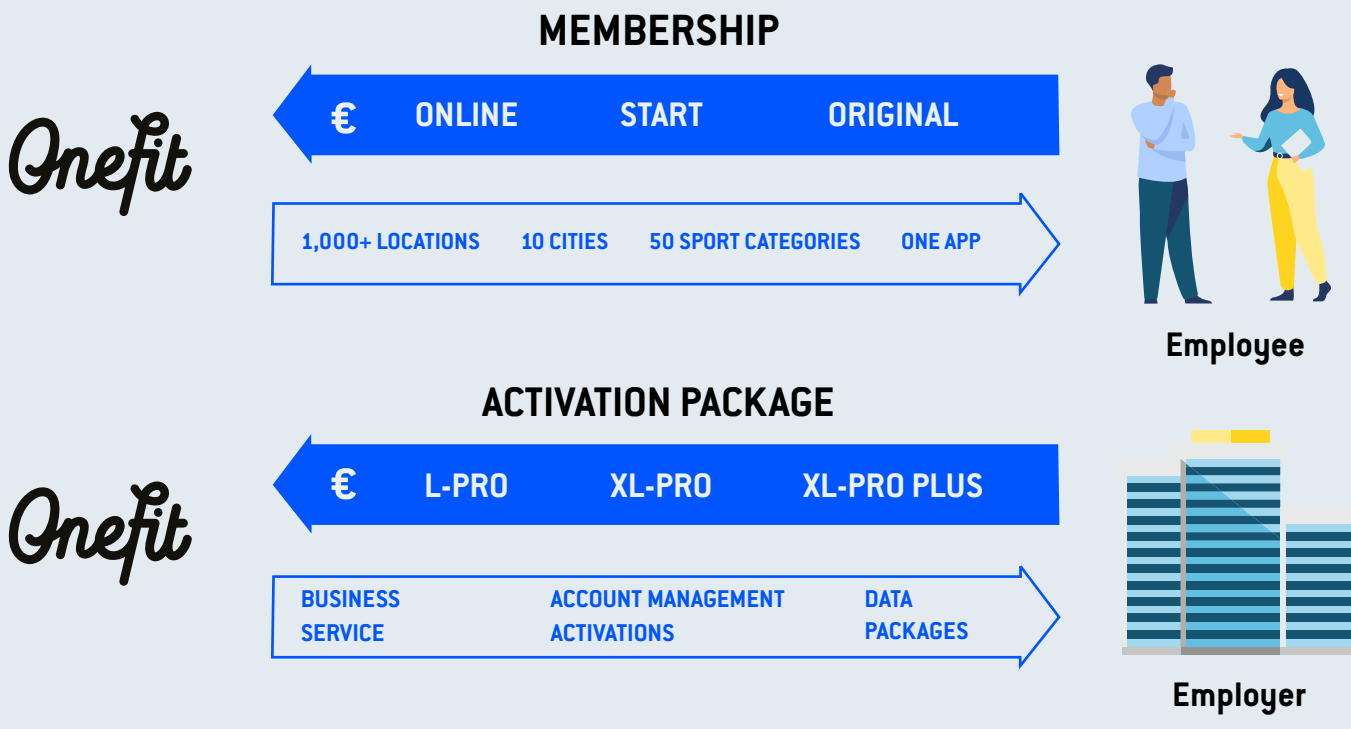

How does WKR work?

Tip:
 Deduct the OneFit membership from the salary of your employee and give them a tax benefit.

EMPLOYER

EMPLOYEE

The employer pays the activation package to OneFit (PRO) and receives business services, OneFit Activate, personal account management, team building, challenges and webinars.

The employee pays the remainder for the Online, Start or Original membership to OneFit and gets access to 1,000+ locations, 50 sports categories and online workouts.
